I hereby make application to the examining board for the purpose of taking the Journeyman's Examination. I realize that a passing grade of 75% is necessary and that the decision of the board is final. Further, I realize that the board must be furnished any and all information desired of me or of any employer as to my general qualifications. Should I be licensed by said board, it is understood that I will be held responsible to abide by all laws and ordinances and statutes that apply to said work. I also understand that violation of such laws will be grounds for revocation of said license by the board.
