

The Affordable Connectivity Program

Federal Assistance for Internet Bills & Getting a Computer

The Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) is a Federal Communications Commission \(FCC\) program that replaces the Emergency Broadband Benefit Program (EBB Program) to help low-income households pay for internet service and connected devices. If your household is eligible, you can receive:

- Up to a $30/month discount on your internet service
- Up to a $75/month discount if your household is on qualifying Tribal lands
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, tablet, or desktop computer (with a co-payment of more than $10 but less than $50)

Only one monthly service discount and one device discount is allowed per household. To receive the connected device discount, consumers need to enroll in the ACP with a participating provider that offers connected devices (Note: not all internet company offer device discounts.) The internet company will provide the discount to the consumer.

How to Qualify:

- Based on your household income (refer to list)
- If you, your child or dependent participates in certain government assistance programs such as SNAP, Medicaid, WIC or other programs
- If you, your child or dependent receives a Lifeline benefit. Lifeline is a Federal Communications Commission program to help make communications services more affordable for low-income consumers.

How to Apply:

- Online: Login or create a new account to complete the ACP application online
- Mail: Complete the application and Household Worksheet and send copies of your proof documentation to the ACP Support Center at PO Box 7081, London, KY 40742.

- Through Your Provider: Contact your phone or internet company
