Programs & Descriptions

RBI MENTORSHIP BASEBALL LEAGUE (CO-ED) | MAY 2020 – AUGUST 2020

Ages 10-16

Various City of Raleigh Parks

The Raleigh Police Department RBI Mentorship Baseball League is for 10-16 year old youth who reside in the City of Raleigh and have limited experience playing baseball. Each team is led by coaches and umpires who volunteer (officers, parents, and community leaders) their time to the league. The RBI Mentorship Baseball League partners with Parks, Recreation & Cultural Resources. Participants need to sign up at Community Centers in the Southeast Raleigh area. The season concludes with an awards ceremony.

EXPLORERS POST 911 | YEAR ROUND

Ages 14-20

Raleigh Police Training Center, 4205 Spring Forest Rd., Raleigh, NC 27616

Explorer Post 911 stems from a partnership with Boy Scouts of America. The Explorer Post 911 Program gives young men and women hands-on experience and exposure to the criminal justice field. Explorers have the opportunity to see and train with police officers in a scaled down version of actual law enforcement academy training. Along the way, Cadets will learn, have fun, face challenges, and discover whether a law enforcement career is right for them. Explorers also participate in social activities like law enforcement promotional ceremonies, community events, and parades. There are team building activities, light fitness exercises, information on proper nutrition, educational field trips and competitions.

Participant Max: 30 Boys and Girls
