Literary – Journal Writing Workshop: Write Your Journey

Age: 16yrs. and up. Your life or journey of life is worth recording. What seems mundane today might be extraordinary tomorrow. Journal writing invites you to follow a path of self-discovery, self-organization and personal expression. In this class, you'll learn about different journaling styles; however, we will focus on simply starting a routine of writing and reflection. We will look at how you can create space for yourself and set the mood for journaling. You'll also practice writing through prompts and discussion. Leave the class with at least one journal entry you've written and resources that will guide you as you continue to develop your practice. Bring a journal and a pen or pencil with you. A quote: Our lives are at once ordinary and mythical. We live and die, age beautifully or full of wrinkles. We wake in the morning, buy yellow cheese, and hope we have enough money to pay for it. At the same instant we have these magnificent hearts that pump through all sorrow and all winters we are alive on the earth. We are important and our lives are important, magnificent really, and their details are worthy to be recorded. From Natalie Goldberg, Writing Down the Bones. 1 session. Instructor: Yevonnie Lowe

Pottery – Workshop: Single Slab Shells with Rosalie Midyette

Age: 16yrs. and up. This workshop focuses on stretching and carving your work into a dynamic, flowing form, starting with a single slab of clay or adding on to thrown forms. You will learn to work with two consistencies of clay on the same piece, very wet clay to leather hard. Demonstrations of slab preparation, attaching, stretching and carving will be shown to guide students as they apply techniques to their own pieces. Students will have a chance to prepare terra sigillata and see how Rosalie uses it as a complementary finish on her own work. A discussion of additional surface treatments will support student completion of projects after the workshop. Students should bring in found objects for sculptural inspiration. Throwing students should also bring in vessels that are soft leather hard. Supply list is available on Sertoma's webpage. 3 sessions. Instructor: Rosalie Midyette
