Painting - Advanced

Have you been painting for a while and reached a plateau where you just do not know how to get to the next level? Or maybe you have had to take a break from painting due to other life priorities and need to brush up on your skills. This class is for painters who are familiar with their medium and are trying to clearly express themselves through the application of paint. Painters work independently, and class sessions provide individual and class critiques. Previous painting experience is required. Students furnish their own supplies. (6 sessions)

Painting - The Art of the Landscape with Peter Marin

The Art of the Landscape is a studio painting course framed by the history of landscape painting and how the landscape has been used by artists to render ideas about modernity, discovery, manifest destiny, colonialism, beauty and most recently, how it has formed the modern idea of environmentalism. Special focus is placed on understanding how the idea of landscape shapes ideas of the contemporary environmental movement. Work is made in response to the discussions and slide lectures.

Formal and theoretical issues are addressed to aid the student in achieving a defined critical thinking position as to their work.

Painting - Watercolor II, Achieving the Next Level

Intermediate and advanced students will refine and learn new brush skills to allow them to paint with confidence and achieve glowing colors and rich darks. We will explore and practice three major styles of developing a watercolor painting; quick sketch, layered approach and sectional development. We will discuss methods of developing a successful painting with consideration of composition, developing the space, value, light and shadow, and atmosphere. Abstract painting will be used to develop gestural brush strokes, looser style and methods of mixing colors on the paper. Students will be encouraged to identify skills they want to work on and receive assistance with problem areas. Students provide their own supplies. Supply list is included on receipt or by calling 919-996-4895. Instructor: Rick Bennett. (6 sessions)
