

Donate an Artifact: Wish List

Do you have a potential donation that lends to the immediate needs of the HRM Program? See below for our "wish list" broken down by our sites.

Mordecai Historic Park

- Anything connected to Andrew Johnson's youth, the early 19th century in Raleigh.
- Items with connection to George E. Badger and/or James Iredell when they practiced law in Raleigh or after they retired.
- Papers, objects, oral histories, photographs which can be traced to the African American population when they lived on the Mordecai property.
- Priest/minister items which date to the 19th century including items to be used in a chapel.

Fred Fletcher Park

- Photographs and objects illustrating the early years of the Methodist Home for Children.
- Material culture connecting people with the property.

John Chavis Memorial Park

- Any objects, photographs, or papers connected to the early days of the park.

City of Raleigh Museum

- Objects, images, or archives which date before 1870. Most significantly, the late colonial era, 1750s-1790s.

Dorothea Dix Park

- Medical equipment used at the Hospital. Images during the years the property was a Hospital.

Latta University Historic Park

- Any objects, images, and papers connected to when Latta University existed and the Oberlin Village Neighborhood.

Moore Square

- Objects, images, and papers directly connected to the Square and/or the surrounding neighborhood including Hargett Street, Wilmington Street, and City Market.

Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources

- Photographs which illustrate what City of Raleigh parks looked like over the years.

Pope House Museum

- Papers which illustrate Dr. Pope's many business connections in Raleigh and when he ran for Mayor in 1919. Medical tools and instruments indicative of an early 20th century private practice.

John P. "Top" Greene Community Center

- Any objects, photographs, or papers connected to Southeast Raleigh.

Raleigh
Parks

raleighnc.gov/parks