Donate an Artifact: Wish List
Historic Resources and Museums Program

Do you have a potential donation that lends to the immediate needs of the HRM Program? See below for our “wish list” broken down by our sites.

Mordecai Historic Park
- Anything connected to Andrew Johnson’s youth, the early 19th century in Raleigh.
- Items with connection to George E. Badger and/or James Iredell when they practiced law in Raleigh or after they retired.
- Papers, objects, oral histories, photographs that can be traced to the African American population that lived on the Mordecai property.
- Priest/minister items that date to the 19th century including items to be used in a chapel.

Fred Fletcher Park
- Photographs and objects illustrating the early years of the Methodist Home for Children.
- Material culture connecting people with the property.

John Chavis Memorial Park
- Any objects, photographs, or papers connected to the early days of the park.

City of Raleigh Museum
- Objects, images, or archives that date before 1870. Most significantly, the late colonial era, 1750s-1790s.

Dorothea Dix Park
- Medical equipment used at the Hospital
- Images during the years the property was a Hospital

Latta University Historic Park
- Any objects, images, and papers connected to when Latta University existed and the Oberlin Village Neighborhood

Moore Square
- Objects, images, and papers directly connected to the Square and/or the surrounding neighborhood including Hargett Street, Wilmington Street, and City Market.

Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources
- Photographs that show what City of Raleigh parks looked like over the years.

Pope House Museum
- Papers that illustrate Dr. Pope’s many business connections in Raleigh and when he ran for Mayor in 1919.
- Medical tools and instruments indicative of an early 20th century private practice.

---

Ainsley Powell, Curator of Collections
919-996-4365
ainsley.powell@raleighnc.gov