

Donate an Artifact: Wish List

Do you have a potential donation that lends to the immediate needs of the HRM Program?

Mordecai Historic Park

- Anything connected to Andrew Johnson’s youth, the early 19th century in Raleigh.
- Items with connection to George E. Badger and/or James Iredell when they practiced law in Raleigh or after they retired.
- Papers, objects, oral histories, photographs which can be traced to the African American population when they lived on the Mordecai property.
- Priest/minister items which date to the 19th century including items to be used in a chapel.

Fred Fletcher Park

- Photographs and objects illustrating the early years of the Methodist Home for Children.
- Material culture connecting people with the property.

John Chavis Memorial Park

- Any objects, photographs, or papers connected to the early days of the park.

City of Raleigh Museum

- Objects, images, or archives which date before 1870. Most significantly, the late colonial era, 1750s-1790s.

Dorothea Dix Park

- Medical equipment used at the Hospital.
- Images during the years the property was a Hospital.

Latta University Historic Park

- Any objects, images, and papers connected to when Latta University existed and the Oberlin Village Neighborhood.

Moore Square

- Objects, images, and papers directly connected to the Square and/or the surrounding neighborhood including Hargett Street, Wilmington Street, and City Market.

Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources

- Photographs which illustrate what City of Raleigh parks looked like over the years.

Dr. M.T. Pope House Museum

- Papers which illustrate Dr. Pope’s many business connections in Raleigh and when he ran for Mayor in 1919.
- Medical tools and instruments indicative of an early 20th century private practice.

John P. “Top” Greene African American Cultural Center

- Any objects, photographs, or papers connected to Southeast Raleigh.

