Open Studio with Gail

Do you enjoy painting or always wanted to give it a try? Would a little guidance and a lot of open space encourage you to explore this practice which so many find therapeutic? Look no further! Gail will be on hand and more than happy to answer art questions or help you get over the painter block you may be experiencing. Bring your supplies; we have space for storage. We have some supplies you can purchase for a minimal fee to get you started. Paint brushes and easels are available for you to use. Let's inspire one another and stop making excuses. There is a wall in your home hoping for some fresh artwork! And like most adventures, it is more fun to create with others. This program meets on the 1st & 2nd Tuesday of each month. Paint Pour: Beginners

Learn a fun way to create art at any skill level! Acrylic paint pouring is a fun art that does not matter if you are a beginner or have done this before. This art is about letting go, not controlling the paint. In fact, the more imperfect this art is, the better. Pick your colors and make an 8X10 canvas masterpiece. Supplies are provided.
